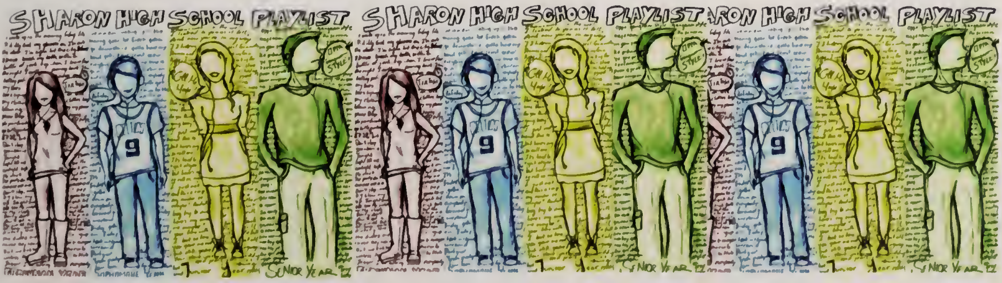
SHARON HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY
181 POND STREET
SHARON, MA 02067

Dear SHS,

For this year's edition of the MARSENGOLD, we decided to create the playlist of our school. To do this, we picked songs that students have said they enjoyed, that have been popular in the past year, and sports teams' songs that they use to create team spirit. We feel that music is a big part of every student's life, and it is something that can bond all of us together. Everyone can relate to music and to each other through it. As the editors, we have chosen two songs that remind us of high school. The songs that we chose are "I've Got this Friend" by the Civil Wars and "Long Live" by Taylor Swift. We picked "I've Got This Friend" because it is about making close friends and long lasting memories. Then, we chose "Long Live" because it talks about getting through the tough times and celebrating the good times. Music connects everyone, so we both thought that it would be a good theme for the 2013 yearbook. The entire yearbook staff has put in many hours of effort and work in creating this yearbook so we hope that you all enjoy it!

Love,
Editor-in-chief Christina Moriarty
and Junior Editor Rebecca Jacoby



Dear SHS,

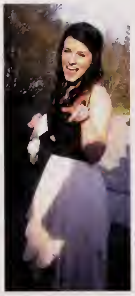
What's your favorite song that reminds you of high school?

Conor Harris

Conor, a sophomore, says that his favorite song that reminds him of SHS is “Remember You” by Wiz Khalifa because he listens to it with his friends often due to its unique sound and that listening to it in the future will remind him of his years at SHS.

Tyler Kaufman

Tyler, a freshman, says that his favorite song is “All of the Lights” by Kanye West because he loves listening to it with his friends and friends are a major part of high school.



Rachel Duggan

Rachel, a junior, says that her favorite song that reminds her of SHS is “Black Nails” by Dan Godlin because she knows him personally and he himself was once a student at SHS.

Sydney Kats

Sydney, a sophomore, says that her favorite song that reminds her of SHS is “Home” by Phillip Phillips because everyone here feels like family and you know you are welcomed by all.

Olivia Bobek

Olivia, a freshman, says that her favorite song is “Dear John” by Taylor Swift. She says it reminds her of high school because the lyrics tell a story that many high school girls can relate to.

Sai Reddivari

Sai, a junior, says that his favorite song that reminds him of high school is “No lie” by 2-Chainz and Drake because he loves to blast it in the car when he's driving around with friends.

Jake Steinberg

Jake, a senior, says that his favorite song that reminds him of high school is “City of Blinding Lights” by U2 because it is referring to a place so bright that it hurts along with a loss of innocence, which bring to mind SHS.

Katie Krolick

Katie, a senior, says that her favorite song reminding her of SHS is “I Don't Want To Be” by Gavin DeGraw because it is about staying true to yourself, knowing where you come from, and loving who you are.

"Right to the Top, Don't Hold Back"

As the 2012 school year came to a close, our loyal, long-time French teacher, Ms. Kathleen Turner was named Massachusetts Teacher of the Year! A nomination from Sharon High pushed her into the running, but from then it was her true passion and talent that allowed her to receive the title. Her student, Payal Shah says, "Mademoiselle Turner went on various trips after being named Massachusetts Teacher of the Year, but she hated being away from her students. As the bell rang in our AP French class she would always be upset- all she wanted to do was keep teaching! Her passion shines through everyday in class, and I really admire her." Along with Ms. Turner's honorable title Mr. Dixon also received a top state teaching award. He was recognized for being a phenomenal Biology teacher. Not only did Sharon High School excel academically, but our football team's victory was because of yet another outstanding faculty member. Coach Morse, only 2 years after coaching at Sharon, brought home a Superbowl Victory for the Eagles. His motivating pep talks and effective practices helped bring out the best in the abilities of our football players. This year we would like to dedicate our yearbook to Kathleen Turner, James Dixon, and David Morse. They make students and faculty radiate with Eagle Pride!

Massachusetts Teacher of the Year

Dedication

Mr. Dixon received the 2012 Massachusetts Outstanding Biology Teacher of the Year Award. A selection committee member shared, “He works well with students; his classes were always active. The kids were actively participating.” Our faculty and students were extremely proud of Mr. Dixon.

Outstanding Biology Teacher of the Year

Patriots High School Coach of the Year

Coach David Morse was named New England Patriots High School Coach of the Year in recognition of his team’s Super Bowl victory over Wayland, 12-3, on Saturday, Dec. 1. Pro Hall of Fame Linebacker Andre Tippett visited Coach Morse and his team on Dec. 11, 2012 to personally honor our Coach.

> “To have success on the football field, you need a great coach and team players who are hard workers, disciplined and who know how to persevere”
> Andre Tippett

Time to Say Goodbye

A dedication to our retiring teachers

Michael Flasher

Mr. Flasher has been an Instructional Assistant in the Special Education Department for ten years. After his graduation from college, he was employed as a Manufacturing Engineer in the Boston area. Mr. Flasher says that he thoroughly enjoys assisting students in their academic subjects and helping them attain the necessary skills that will be of a benefit to them in future years. He has always deeply appreciated the co-operation he has received from peers, faculty and the staff here at SHS. In his retirement, Mr. Flasher and his wife are looking forward to enjoying some of their hobbies which include photography, attending classic automobile shows, and participating in the local community theater.

Sheryl Lampert

Mrs. Lampert has been teaching at SHS since September of 1984. She says she has loved every moment of teaching math to students, teaching them to think about the process of solving problems and not just being robots. She once has a student tell her that after watching the TV show "House" she now understood why it was important to learn Geometry for the logical reasoning ability. She will miss working with the students both with math and their safety. She has been the adviser of the GSA since the 1990's and was a member of the first harassment team. She has always taught looking at the whole individual and not just the math student. Mrs. Lampert worked at Brockton, Canton and Norwood schools before coming to Sharon. In her retirement, she looks forward to traveling and not being scheduled every second of the day and having time to do whatever she pleases. On that she she "bids SHS a fond farewell."

Eleanor Goodman

Mrs. Goodman has been at SHS for about 21 years. She began her career as a Statistical Analyst at PepsiCo International in NY. She returned to Massachusetts and worked as a treasuer for a family business while raising her chidlren. She was tehn lucky enough to be hired by the Sharon Public Schools.

Mrs. Goodman says that SHS is a very special place to work because there is so much collaboration among the staff. Everyone in the math department is so willing to share and work together to constantly improve the courses offered to students. The studnets are also very special because, as a whole, they are motivated and seem to enjoy learning which, in turn, makes the role of a teacher very rewarding. When she retires Mrs. Goodman plans to spend more time with her family, especially the little ones, volunteer, travel, read and maybe learn some new skills,

Christine Heck

Mrs. Heck has been the nurse here at SHS for 22 years. She has really enjoyed school nursing. It has always been her goal to help each student learn to become a savvy health-care consumer, able to take good care of him/herself after leaving high school. She is married and has two grown up children, both of whom graduated from SHS. Upon her retirement she looks forward to pursuing her passions of kayaking and camping.

Cheryl Fisher

Mrs. Fisher is the 9-12 Special Education Student Services Administrator. It has been her job at SHS to ensure that every student at Sharon High School has a wide variety of opportunities and all the support that they will need. The students and faculty have been honored and lucky to have had their lives touched by such an extraordinary woman. Happy Retirement!

IT'S ALWAYS A GOOD TIME

Saturday is usually most students' favorite day of the week. After a series of consecutively long school days, students understandably look forward to those small rewards of relaxation, rest, and maybe even a little fun. Though Homecoming ran from 11 in the morning to 1 in the afternoon, many students and staff alike showed up to support the various clubs and organizations set up to entertain and raise money by selling goods and food. A return to one's home celebrated with quirky games and ways to meet and bond with people associated with the school is certainly an annual event to anticipate. Most of those who attended Homecoming also showed support for Sharon High's Football Team, whose home game began right after Homecoming wrapped up. Surrounded by friends and activities, the lively atmosphere was enough to incite strong school spirit, pride, and unity.

Thriller, Thriller Night!

Everyone knows there's nothing more exciting at SHS than the annual dress up day for Halloween! As seen students from all four grade participated in this festive day, they showed their true school spirit despite this years unfortunate lack of a pep rally. Teachers and other staff as usual selected students for different categories in a contest. Whether scary, funky, creepy, fun or just creative, the costumes never get old and get better and better every year. With such a competitive aspect amongst students it must have been hard to choose individuals and groups as nominees.

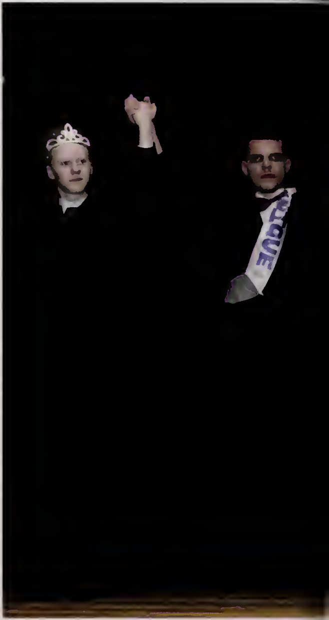
Mr. SHS: End of the World Edition



10 contestants rose to the challenge. Only one came out to be crowned Mr. SHS 2012. Judged by Mr. Arguimbau, Mrs. Goodman, Mr. Sanborn, and Ms. Trahan, the ten contestants showcased their talents in an amazing show. Steven Varshavsky, a ballroom dancer, placed first, followed by Thomas Chapuis with a stand-up comedy act, and Donald Hodgkinson with his yo yo routine. Various awards were also given. Warren Kenyon was named "Most Unique", Scott Kaplan was named "Most Swag" and Isaiah Reid was named "Best Dancer". A highlight of the night was when the contestants performed to Gangnam Style, and were joined on stage by SHS's own Psy, Dr. Cho, and Mr. Tessier. The Class of 2014 planning board, led by president Kim Chook and vice president Aaron Goldenberg, created a show to be remembered.

On October 1st, ten Chinese Exchange students and one teacher arrived in Sharon from Gao Xing Tang Nan High School in Xian, China to be greeted by their excited host families. Organized and managed by Ms. Collins and with help from Ms. Beebe, this exchange program started in 2008 and continues to be a fantastic way for both the American and Chinese students to learn about a culture that differs from their own. Dr. Libano comments, "It is a privilege to have them here and they enhance the learning environment for everybody." The friendships made by this program will indeed last a lifetime.

It was a night that began with dresses, shoes, ties, flowers, hair salons, perfume and cologne. It ended with the sophomore class, joined by a few members of the others classes, dancing the night away. The theme was a night of stars, and the stars did shine on the members of the sophomore class, thanks to the planning board members who planned the dance and also decorated for it. Their hard work gave the sophomores a night to remember forever.

The dance was Neon themed, anything and everything neon was acceptable- it was encouraged to go all out! It was held right in the high school cafeteria, and there were blacklights and neon decorations provided by the planning board. Although people were doubtful, the rave was a huge success and the juniors and seniors hoped for a Part 2 later in the year!

I wouldn't trade my experiences in SHSTC for the world.”
-Josh Levitt

This fall, the Sharon High School Theatre Company performed The Wedding Singer. The shows that they put on were very impressive and at a much higher calliber than a High School production. Ms. Dennis directed the play with Kayla Armstrong and Ms. Frye was the musical director. Seniors Matt Goldstein, Josh Levitt, Ben Hirsh, Allison Collins, Adam Kantor, Lydia Utter, and Vani Sundaram had large roles, as well as Junior Rosalie McAvoy. The play also could not have happened without the entire cast, hte choreographers, stage managers, set design team, hair and makeup crew, costume designers, and the band. The play chronicles the love stories of various couples, the main one being that of The Wedding singer played by senior Matt Goldstein and Julia played b junior Rosalie McAvoy.

The amazing cast and crew of this years Festival Competition made an amazing show this year! Making it to semi-finals, with their show, The Odyssey, was a big accomplishment that the team can be proud of, especially with such a challenging show. With music, costumes, sets and script all originally created by the cast and crew, the group really outdid themselves. Both cast and crew become really close. As said by Senior Josh Levitt, "We all cheer other on and that's one of the great things about festival!"

Orchestra

"Because in this world of troubles, music pulls me through"

Containing members of all grades 9th-12th, the students of the Sharon High School orchestra join together to share their love for music. All of the students have amazing abilities for playing music whether it be on the violin, viola, cello, or bass. When the students play as a group, they bring various selections of music to life. Rehearsing three times a week during Eagle Blocks, all of the musicians in orchestra work hard to get to showcase their pieces at the concerts throughout the year. Led by Ms. Ethier, all of the string players contribute their talent to the orchestra. The string players all look forward to growing the success of the orchestra.

On December 13th, Sharon High School's Band performed in the auditorium at their annual winter concert. With winter as their theme, they played Heatherwood Portrait, Hanukkah Festival, and Spontaneous Combustion beautifully. The last song they performed, Sleigh Ride, was a combined performance between the band, the chorus, and the orchestra. The band practices several times a week during Eagle Block and performs at many such concerts throughout the year, many at community events. Lead by Mr. McGee, the SHS Band can be thanked for the beautiful music they make for SHS and the surrounding community.

"Thank You For The Music"

Chorus

Below: Sophie Einis,Jasmine Garani and Barbara Delgado sing in the winter concert.

The Sharon High School Chorus program is led by Ms. Frye. It is a full year course that meets three times a week during Eagle Block. Junior Alex Peltz describes the program as "a lot of work and a lot of time you have to put into it, but when you perform it is worth it." Junior Kelsie Budhu agrees, "I like Chorus because I like the way all the students are able to perform any song they're taught beautifully. even if it is really challenging.

"You Are the Music In Me"

The men in the chorus add a deeper sound to the melody,

Emily Callan, Vani Sundaram and Emily Higgins sing their heats out.

Calling All Choir ♫

The gentlemen of the choir create a beautiful sound when they sing.

Within the school choir, there are different groups. Tenor bass consists of of a small group of just guys, whereas treble choir consists of a small group of just girls. Select choir consists of a select group of kids who tried out and got in. Tenor bass and treble choir meet only during eagle block, and select choir meets everyday during elective periods. Select choir also participates in Christmas caroling.

"We all have so much fun together and there's never a dull moment when we're not laughing. It's a really nice part of the day to just take a break from stressful work and sing."

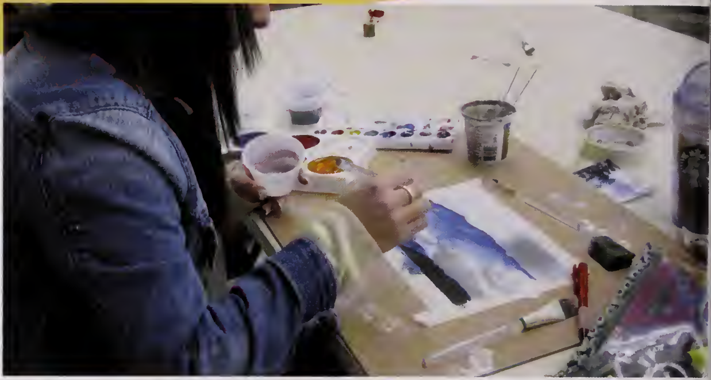
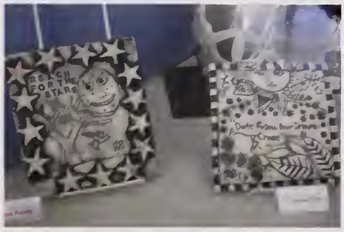
“There is no must in art because art is free”





There are so many art classes available at Sharon High School such as, Drawing and Painting,, Clay, Drawing and Painting, 3D Art, Digital Photography, and Intro to Art to name a few. These classes, taught by Ms. Lazzaro, Ms. Buck, Ms. Renke and Ms. Roberto, teach students to express themselves in creative ways.

Not too many people realize how much work goes into making the yearbook. It starts the year before when the staff needs to choose a theme and create all the templates. Then when school begins they need to take photos, write articles, do research, advertise and so much more. There are several deadlines throughout the year where the staff must complete the pages and submit them to the yearbook company. The entire yearbook must be completed by March in order to ensure that it will be printed by the end of the year.

The 2013 yearbook staff was lead by senior co-editors Rebecca Jacoby and Christina Morirarty who did an amazing job coordinating all the staff to complete their pages on time. Countless hours were spent by all staff to ensure that the students of Sharon High get an inspirational book that highlights their years in High School.

Cashin' Out

The football team made history this season. Winning the Davenport Division for the first time since 1987, the team qualified for the post season play off game for the first time in Sharon High History. A dramatic improvement over last season, they finished with a record of 8-3 going into the postseason. Sharon versed the Pembroke Titans at Braintree High School, winning a narrow 7-6 victory. In the Super Bowl game at Bentley College the team faced the Wayland Warriors on a snow covered field, with the stands full of Sharon fans in maroon and gold. The team claimed victory with a strong defense and forceful offense. To add to the amazing season, Head Coach, Dave Morse, was honored by the New England Patriots, named New England Patriots High School Coach of the Week and named a Coach of the Year in the Boston Globe. Congratulations to the Sharon Eagles 2012 Football team!

Sharon Varsity Cheer

With their contagious enthusiasm, the SHS Cheerleaders have not only spread their spirit to the crowds, but have also been an unconditional support to the victorious football team. Led by tri-captains Kelsey Whiting, Jackie Rivers, and Val Husselbee, the team has continuously cheered on the football team through each and every game. Whether it was keeping spirits high after a disappointing loss, or pushing the players on during a close game, the cheerleaders have truly shown what it means to be a team and to support one another. Captain Kelsey Whiting remarks, "This season has been a huge stepping stone for SHS cheerleading, and the team has grown so much since the first practice. All the girls work very hard, and I've never been more proud to call myself an SHS cheerleader! Eagle pride!"

Cross Country

Born to Run

The 2012 Cross Country season showed tremendous improvement for the Eagles. The boys team had a positive record of 4-1, losing only to Oliver Ames. This girls team also showed improvement with a record of 1-4. At the Division III Class Meet, senior captain Caroline Sun came in eighth and qualified for the All-State meet, coming in 31st. On the boys team juniors Adam Selsman and Paul Fleming were one and two spots away from qualifying for the All-Sate Meet, and will surely do so next year. Both teams had significant freshmen talent that helped them throughout the season and will do so again going into next year.

This season has been full of jokes and laughs
From faking an injury to getting lost in the hallway with our tourist maps
Everyone made this team so special to us
We loved funny dress up days and singing karaoke on the bus.
We have more handshakes than is possible to keep track
So coach forbid them, but we ignored his request and didn't look back
At the Canton game, our middles apart,
But with our messed rotation, we still played with heart
Our five game matches seemed to happen more often than not
We stuck with it, giving it our best shot
Team trips to Orange Leaf were weekly at least
At team dinners, big y pizzas and salt and vinegar chips were the feast
We expect greatness from you all next year
That Sharon Volleyball made Tournament is what we want to hear

We're playing basketball..

The 2012-3 Sharon Eagles varsity boys basketball team finished 15-7 in a regular season filled with streaks. Sharon went on a victorious seven-game spurt early in the season, highlighted by junior guard James Fritzon's last-second three pointer in a 65-62 victory over Oliver Ames in front of a raucous student section at Eagle Gymnasium.

After a mid-season rough patch - Sharon appeared in dire straights after a Feb 5 loss to Franklin - another conquest over OA, on Feb. 12, put the Eagles back in gear. Junior guard Brian Mukasa and Fritzon (31 points apiece) carried Sharon offensively in the convincing victory. Fritzon said, "We got our offensive back flowing." Mukasa added, "In transition, we were getting up and down (the court). It was a good night."

From there, the Eagles were off and flying. Three days later, Sharon followed the football Super Bowl championship banner-raising and basketball Senior Night ceremonies with an impressive 60-56 of Devenport division leader Milford, which clinched a state tournament berth. Senior forward Toby Modebelu said, "The amount of energy expended on that court was ridiculous." Senior captain Kevin Bartas added, "We really came together as a team; everyone stepped up, did their jobs, and we got the W. It was awesome."

Over February vacation, the host Eagles championed the Davenport Basketball classic for the first time in eight years. In the regular season finale, Sharon blew out Canton 70-44, to enter the post season(before which the yearbook was printed) on a six game win streak. Mukasa said, "We're jelling, coming together, playing well, flying around." Senior captain Iam Beach said, "Everyone wants to win and just keep it rolling. Couldn't ask for anything more - crew is great. Great team."

Girl's Varsity Basketball

Sharon High's girls varsity basketball team walked on to the court for every game ready to give it their all. Working hard during practices every week, the team stepped up to every challenge and faced their opponents determined to win. Ranked in the top 15 in the tournament, the girls continued to score and improve their rank. As a team, they overcame any obstacles that came in their way and after their first fifteen games, the team finished with an impressive record of 11-4. The girls were a basketball team on the court but also a close family off the court. Growing in amazing, young talent, there are many high hopes for the future of the girl's varsity basketball team.

This season was yet another success for the wrestling team. Each player used technique, instinct, and strength to win matches. This sport is very time consuming, but very rewarding for all the players as they gain muscle and character. The record was 14-1-14 at the end of this season. Evan Kates (106 weight class) also broke a team record for pin time in 7.1 seconds. The wrestlers worked very hard and it paid off!

Coach: Gary Werden
Team: Brandan Berchuck, Sarah Binney, Benn Bluestein, Eli Blumen, Adam Camilli, Geaffrey Cammans, Thamas Cannally, Aynslie D'Avanza, Sebastien De Carbannel, Luke Evans, Janathan Fyler, Jared Galdman, Stephen Greenwald, Wilsan Gregary, Lucy Janes, Jordan Karten, Gearge Larianav, Aaran Lamba, David Mende, Zach Mersan, Vincent Miaa, Akanksha Nalatwad, Sarem Rashid, Peter Riley, Alisan Ruttenberg, Esha Shah, Madhure Shah, Paul Jack (PJ) Solaman, Salaman Tarlin, Andrew Tarnaff, Alex Tian, Ria Turkhia, Katherine Xu, Tracy Zhang, Lawrence Zmaira and Matthew Zola

Sharon High School's sailing team works long and hard each day at Lake Massapoag, striving for sailing perfection. In the fall, they sail for recreation, but in the spring, the gloves come off and it is time to compete! The rigorous practices pay off as the team always puts on a fantastic and thrilling performance at competitions. They work together and communicate as a team so that they can finish in their desired order. Rough seas and tough winds are no match against this team - they could all sail in their sleep if they needed to!

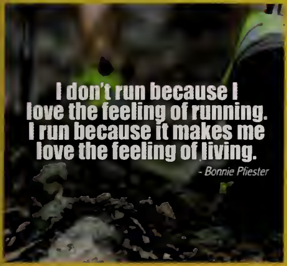
DreamFar Marathon



I don't run because I love the feeling of running. I run because it makes me love the feeling of living.
- Bonnie Pfiester

Quote by Bonnie Pfiester

Hearing the loud cheers and seeing the smiling faces of those in the crowd, the runners received a great energy boost to aid in completing the marathon.

unning a marathon is no easy task. or anyone, running 26.2 miles may eem daunting - even impossible. But ith the support, encouragement, and rength of parents as well as fellow udents and mentors, the DreamFar igh School Marathon team was made ossible. Joining with other schools roughout the training period leading p to the marathon, the team ran gether starting in October for May 2th, the day of the COX Sports rovidence Marathon. Through reamFar, one can accomplish omething worth celebrating - that not nany people accomplish in a lifetime - s it is an inspiring club that improves ealth, builds new bonds, and teaches bout the rewards of hard work and edication. As the members of the team nout before each and every run, "26.2 TOGETHER!"

There was support at every step of the way - from other students to parents to teachers to mentors to leaders/coaches who were always there to cheer the runners on! In the end, everyone involved in the challenging process - those who played key roles in getting the team to the finish line as well as those who crossed the finish line - came together to form one large family. Much thanks to City Sports, Adidas, and FuelBelt for all the gear! The team greatly appreciates its sponsors and all who worked to make something seemingly impossible possible.

I Hope You Dance

I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
May love never leave you empty handed
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance

I HOPE YOU DANCE
I HOPE YOU DANCE

I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
Never settle for the path of least resistance
Livin' might mean takin' chances, but they're worth takin'
Lovin' might be a mistake but it's worth makin'
Don't let some Hellbent heart leave you bitter
When you come close to sellin' out, reconsider
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance

I HOPE YOU DANCE
I HOPE YOU DANCE

Samantha Kaplan

Samantha, you have taught our family so much. You taught us that no matter how hard the fall, you have to get back up and try again. You taught us that hard work and perseverance lead to success. And, most importantly, you taught us to laugh at ourselves. We will miss you so much, but there is a world of future students out there who will be so happy to call you their teacher.

With much love and

May your life's vision have no boundaries!

Becca & Ilana Sawyer

You both have surprised our family from the moment that we discovered that we were having twins. What a gift! You were each other's constant companion. Each morning you woke up with a playmate and partner in crime. You are each unique with your own strengths and weaknesses yet you support one another and have forged a bond that most would be lucky to find in a lifetime. You give each other strength to accomplish your own goals and complement each other.

As you both graduate from high school and go off to your next adventure, we are so proud of both of you, who you have become. You will each go far as individuals but you will always have each other to fall back on.

We love you both so much!

Alicia,
You have grown into an amazing young lady, yet to us you will always be "our little girl". As you enter a new era in your life, follow your dreams, stay true to yourself and go forth with your energetic spirit and kind heart. Share with the rest of the world the beauty we have enjoyed throughout your youth.

We are so very proud of you, Alicia.
Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Christina, Payal, and Jocelyn

Thank you for all the hard work that you put into making this yearbook the best it can be.

I hope you find success as you leave SHS. But, more important than success, my wish for you is that you follow your dreams, find happiness in who you are and love what you do.

Love,
Ms. Schreiber
